Mahuron Education Grants
Mahuron Grant Cycle, 2026

Applicant	School	Grade Level	Project	Amount Awarded
Jenisa Collier	BSE	1st	Bind It, Write It, Read It – Supplies to store books and other necessary items in order to teach kids how to stay organized as well as binding math working mats that provide hands-on learning. This helps to keep students engaged and the organization increases learning time.	$451.41
Charles Adams	EWMS	5-8	Special Education – Sensory Modulation and de-escalation environment to assist students with severe emotional disabilities to help regulate with low-stimulation so they may return to academic tasks. Academic focus and flexible learning - supplies that allow students to complete assignments in preferred positions. This includes clipboards, headphones, markers, iPad chargers, etc… Social-emotional learning – wooden chess pieces to be used as an intervention tool during structured break periods, social skills instruction, and reward systems.	$359.79
April Blair	WW Jr/Sr		Technology Update – two new tablets and cases for Life Skills classroom allowing students to practice communication, problem-solving, independence, digital literacy, and other real-world skills.	$457.98
Aimie Crowder	EWES	Pre K	Sensory/Calm Down Area – purchase specialized, durable pediatric sensory equipment that targets deep couch and vestibular inputs.	$412.91
Angela Record	WWES	1st	A Cozy Corner for Growing Readers – Transform the first-grade classroom library into a warm, inviting, and engaging space where students can develop a love of reading by purchasing high-interest books that reflect a variety of interests, etc… as well as the addition of colorful book bins and comfortable seating.	$500.00

Amanda Dixon	EWES	3rd	STEAM Hydroponic Growing System – purchase hydroponic tower, journals, nutrients, and seeds to provide students with a hands-on learning experience while introducing them to sustainable agriculture, plant science, STEAM, and environmental stewardship.	$275.00 – Elliott Family
Logan Davidson	BSE	4th	Beyond the Book: Living Story Lab – purchase books and supplies to create Story Labs so students can study clues, maps, pictures, etc to discover details from books in order to practice and enhance current reading skills such as inference, summarization, theme, context clues, and supporting answers with evidence.	$500.00
Celeste DePoy	EWES	3rd and 4th	Reading Pens – purchase Text-to-Speech pens for Sp. Ed. Reading room to support students who struggle to independently access written language to provide additional reading and language support, especially those reading significantly below grade level, allowing them to access unfamiliar words and classroom text more independently.	$427.90
Monika Spaulding	SHS	9th-12th	SHS Media Class – purchase of media supplies including magnetic microphones, tablet stands, and on-camera monitors. Students are utilizing iPads for student media classes to support content creation, time management, and communication skills through the student media classes. The on-camera monitor provides an important instructional and production resource for the broadcasting program by allowing students to more accurately see and evaluate camera shots while producing live broadcasts with professional broadcast equipment. * Partnering with another teacher.	$392.35 – Elliott Family
Emily Johnson	BSE	4th-5th	Recycle – purchase items to recycle 3D printer filament waste into usable items such as keychains, ornaments, and desktop items while simultaneously teaching students about reducing waste, how to safely use tools and equipment, following safety procedures, problem-solving,	$460.00 and decision making through the recycling process.

Sue Shipman	EWES	K-4th	Pickleball Paddles and Balls – purchase of pickleball paddles and balls for Elementary Phys. Ed.	$130.00
Leah Mendizabal	WW JR High	7th	My Future: Career and College Readiness Portfolios – materials for students to create a readiness portfolio that grows along with them as they learn more about themselves and their interests, strengths, values, and skills and use that knowledge as a starting point to explore careers.	$350.87
Leah Mendizabal	WW Jr. High	8th	Stronger Together: Purchase items for small-sided games, partner challenges, and cooperative activities that require students to move, communicate, problem-solve and encourage each other.	$465.97
Leah Mendizabal	WW Jr. High	7th	Move, Coordinate, Grow: Purchase items that promote foundational movement experiences through progressive movement stations where students will practice jumping, balancing, juggling, footwork, rhythm, etc…	$457.69
Samantha Green	WWES	K	Hand-On Learning: building Readers, Writers, and Mathematicians – purchase hands-on manipulatives, literacy materials, and interactive learning tools that will allow students to learn through exploration, movement, communication, and play.	$288.24
JD Wade-Swift	SHS	9-12	On the Air; On the Job – Preparing Students for Careers in Media – Purchase of wireless transmission system to expand the technical capabilities of student-led, real-world broadcast program to gain experience with an important component of modern live video production. * Partnering with another teacher.	$500.00

Whitney Hall	WW Jr/SR	7-12	Courtyard Upgrade – purchase items to upgrade and make the library courtyard more enjoyable by adding outdoor games, and a storage box to organize items.	$500.00
Jennifer Stahl	WW Jr/Sr	7th	Hook, Focus, Grow – establish a hands-on crochet program for the weekly Friday Seminar period. Skills gained will be sustained attention, perseverance, problem-solving, patience, following direction, and attention to detail.	$402.00
Sarah Temple	WW Elem	5-6	Raz-Plus Reading Supplement – Intervention and Support program for reading support for students with learning disabilities and health impairments.	$373.00 Elliott Family
Nick Gunter	EWMS	4-8	PE Needs – Purchase dodgeballs, indoor badminton supplies, and 9-Square game for middle school PE classes.	$500.00
TOTAL				$8210.11